Four SF Youths Held in Car Theft

Four San Francisco youths, all with serious juvenile records, were arrested this week in Brisbane by California Highway Patrol officers and held for San Francisco police on a charge of car theft.

The youths, all 16 years old, were picked up after they engaged in a fight at Brisbane and a special policeman called the CHP for help.

Upon checking the car the youths were driving, Officers Roy Edwards and Frank Chevalier found that it had been stolen Friday in San Francisco from near Seals Stadium.

The quartet confessed to the theft and implicated two other San Francisco youths.

One More Hurdle In HMB Project

The last hurdle to be cleared before the Pillar Point breakwater project is placed before Congress is the bureau of budget, Congressman Jack Z. Anderson wrote to the County Board of Supervisors today.

When approved by the budget bureau, the project will be reported to the public works committee of the House of Representatives, Anderson stated.

The $4,500,000 project has been endorsed by Gov. Earl Warren and political and civic groups. It will provide a small boat harbor in the Half Moon Bay area, leading to industrial development on the Coastside.

San Mateo County is to contribute about $500,000 toward the project.

Rains Boost County Total Above Last Year's Mark

Recent rains have boosted the fiscal year's total above the amount of rainfall received during the entire year last year, according to San Mateo County Agricultural Commissioner Max Leonard.

He said that the rains which started last Saturday have brought nearly two inches of water to the Coastside area, the county's largest producer of agricultural products.

Up to today, 11.50 inches of rain has fallen during the fascal year, Leonard said. At the same time last year, the figure stood at 9.88 inches. Last year's total was 11 inches.

Leonard said that the usual amount of rain which the Coastside gets by this time of the year is between 16 and 18 inches. He explained that most of the rainfall is generally received by March.

The recent rains have made the agricultural outlook on the Coastside excellent, particularly as to field and vegetable crops. Water has run off into reservoirs and the water table has been raised.

Meanwhile Northern California struggled to pare its power consumption one fifth today under drastic new conservation regulations set up as result of the drought emergency.

THE WALLS CAME TUMBLING DOWN — Even the huge earthquake of 1906 couldn't destroy San Mateo County's Courthouse. Top: The building as it appeared after the 'quake 42 years ago. This picture is the property of Jack Poole, long-time Redwood City resident who lived near the Dome at the time of the big shake. Below: the rebuilt courthouse as it appeared today. Note how the damaged section now forms the center area of the remodelled building. The above historic picture of Redwood City is one of several dozen submitted in the Tribune's "Anniversary Edition" Contest. Residents are urged to enter their oldtime photographs prior to the deadline next Monday and try for a cash award. Many of these pictures will appear in the Silver Anniversary Edition, May 1.

Can rain solve the power problem?

Up-to-date answers to questions about the shortage

1 Are rains enough? No. Literally, too much water's gone out of too many reservoirs. Rains now cannot be expected to replace it.

2 Just how bad is the drought? It's the worst water power year in our history. This season's rainfall is far below normal. The snowpack in the mountains is scant. What snow and rain we have had has been poorly distributed—not enough of it in the area where it's needed most. And... to make things worse... this dry season follows a dry one last year.

3 What's the drought got to do with electricity? Water is power. Water shortage means power shortage. We have 14 steam-electric generating plants, but most of California's electricity is supplied by water. Today our 55 hydro-electric plants need water. Our 121 reservoirs are thirsty. Some are almost empty. The drought, too, creates unusual irrigation demands in orchards and farms. Pumping water takes still more electricity. That makes a bad problem worse.

4 Is the drought the only cause of the emergency? No. Actually there are many causes and the drought intensifies them. The story, boiled down, is this: During the war years we couldn't obtain priorities to maintain our normal building program. As soon as war controls were removed in 1945 we started all over again placing orders for generators, boilers, transformers and other equipment. Complex generators aren't sold like used cars. They must be built to order, piece-by-piece. The few plants in our country equipped to make them were crippled by strikes and other obstacles. Their production suffered. Delivery dates were missed. To make a tough problem tougher, the demand for electric power has increased even faster than California's tremendous growth in population.

Just last January we received the first steam-electric generator ordered before the war and re-ordered in 1945.

Place all these things together. Add the drought and the greatest migration in history. That's the emergency.

5 Where does the situation stand today? At best it is serious. We have been doing our best, and have been doing so right along, to get power from every source...and rush more steam-electric generators into service. But, as it stands today, no one can tell how long this critical situation will last...or how much worse it will get.

6 Will the new Shasta power help? Of course. Every bit helps. But new Shasta power alone is only a fraction of the total needed. Our area demand is more than 2,000,000 kilowatts. Shasta is expected to supply, next month, about 75,000 additional kilowatts, and another 75,000 kilowatts later in the year. It will help but you can see it won't go far.

7 How about daylight saving time? That means more help... equal to about 140,000 kilowatts. But it's still not a solution. The biggest saving, of course, is the 20% cut in use ordered by the California Public Utilities Commission.

8 What is our record of public service? Let's take a quick look at the score: Except in wartime when we were refused priorities we have always built successfully ahead of demand. Our area enjoys the greatest farm electrification in the country. Our farms are 98% electrified... far ahead of other sections. Our rates are low. During the war we supplied power to a staggering number of industries. Not one was ever shut down for lack of power. Throughout California's greatest years of development electric power in good supply and at low rates has played a major part.

9 What are we doing to solve present problems? Since the war we've been building just as fast as is humanly possible...in spite of delayed delivery dates, material shortages and the like.

Right now, we're in the midst of a huge program of building hydro and steam electric plants. In the last year of the war, 1945, we spent over $22,500,000 on that program; in 1946, $45,000,000 and in 1947 over $100,000,000. Our 1948 construction expenditures are running at a rate exceeding $10,000,000 per month.

We're going to provide just as much power, from as many sources, as we can... in spite of obstacles.

Here's how you can lend a helping hand

This problem is everybody's problem... agriculture, industry, labor, business and householders. You can add your help by remembering to turn off all lights you aren't actually using... in the hall, on the porch, in the bathroom, in the garage. You can keep down the use of electric heaters. You can make sure the refrigerator door is tightly closed. With just a little care you can help a lot to stretch precious power. Won't you lend your helping hand?

Street Naming for RC War Heroes Delayed. Other Plans Approved

A planning commission recommendation that two city streets be renamed for fallen war heroes was tossed back to the commission this week by the Redwood City council.

Councilman W. M. (Bill) Werder said the council was willing to name the streets for heroes, but that the question was, "which heroes." He pointed out that some 50 Redwood City persons lost their lives in the last war and that council might hurt some feelings by singling out two for the honor.

On a motion by Councilman Carl (Ike) Britschgi, council voted to ask the commission to choose the heroes to be honored.

A commission recommendation that Hampton Ct. be renamed Louisiana St. and that Page Pl. be renamed Sixth Ave. was accepted. The two streets to be named for heroes are Hampton Ln. and Halsey St. The name changes were first suggested by Fire Chief Joe Lodi who explained that the present names duplicate other street names in the city and make it difficult to properly answer alarms.

A commission recommendation that the Leonard Realty Co. be permitted to resubdivide a lot at James Ave. and Myrtle St. was accepted.

A commission recommendation that F. J. Culligan be permitted to resubdivide three lots in Woodside Acres was accepted.

City Atty. Cuthbert Currie was directed to prepare a resolution by which the city may permit the Land Development Co. to abandon easements in Redwood Industrial Tract No. 1, as the commission recommended.

A commission recommendation that Mrs. Mary Cavallero's petition to resubdivide a lot in Oak Knoll Manor was referred back to the commission for further study. It was claimed that her proposals were not different from existing conditions in the district.

Pair Held, 1 Injured In County Accidents

Douglas J. Bush, 48-year-old San Francisco painter, was arrested last night on a charge of drunk driving after he was involved in an automobile collision at the intersection of Junipero Serra Blvd. and its extension.

Bush's car collided head-on with a coupe driven by Frank McCape, 48, 55 Darcy Ave., San Mateo. McCabe suffered a minor knee injury.

Chester H. Evans, 30-year-old Colma farmer, suffered bruises when the motorcycle he was driving skidded on loose gravel and crashed into a bridge abutment on the Christensen Dairy Rd. near Colma. Evans was treated at Junipero Serra Hospital.

Kenneth L. Cummings, 38, a San Francisco mechanic, was charged with drunk driving after the car he was driving struck an automobile driven by Stephen Nagy, 29, baseball player.

Electronics Lab Hearing in Belmont

A second hearing on an application by the Electronic Medical Foundation of San Francisco to use the Belle Monti clubhouse as an electronics laboratory was set this week by the Belmont Planning Commission for Saturday morning, after commissioners filed to reach an agreement on the application.

The commission, however, authorized City Atty. Paul A. McCarthy to draw up a use permit for the electronic foundation, in event the commission should decide to grant the application at the Saturday meeting.

Representatives of the foundation told the planners that they had selected Belmont because it would be an ideal quiet location for the medical laboratory and explained that they had signed a contract with the present owners of the property pending the granting of the use permit.

The foundation's plan is to establish a research laboratory for experimentation in the field of invisible radiation and short-wave therapy.

Swift Files For Supervisor

Arthur V. Swift, Redwood City councilman and chairman of the county recreation committee, has filed his nomination papers for election to the county board of supervisors in the June 1 primary election.

Swift will run against Henry W. Edmonds, a retired army lieutenant colonel and real estate man, who is seeking reelection for his second term on the board.

Among those who signed Swift's petition are Dr. A. E. O'Neill, who ran against Edmonds and was defeated four years ago, and Carl A. Britschgi, another Redwood City councilman.

SC Schools Name Student Officers

What it's like to be a telephone installer

1. Some of the busiest fellows in town... Pacific Telephone's installer-repairmen. For we're adding a lot of new telephones every day in the West. It's steady work. And the pay? Latest records show top rate men average about $80 a week for 42 hours. The younger men graduate up to the $80... according to experience.

2. If you became an installer you'd start, most likely, in a training school. With pay, of course...$37 or $38 a week. Then regular increases for eight years after you got on the job. You'd be given other training, too...to help you learn your way up the ladder. Most all the top men in the company came up that way.

3. Fun like this is more fun when your job's secure. And you can count on telephone work. There's a fine benefit plan, too, paid for entirely by the company. It covers sickness, accidents and death, and provides a helpful pension for retirement. There's nothing like the peace of mind a telephone job gives you...at work or at play.

4. Telephone jobs must be good jobs to attract the capable people needed to furnish good service. Good pay, steady work and an employee benefit plan give a strong sense of security. Comfortable surroundings, vacations and friendly fellow workers help make work pleasant.

Mills College To Fete Founding Of Concert Series

From over the nation lovers of chamber music will assemble on the Mills College campus Apr. 21, 22 and 23 to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the opening of the Mills College music building and the beginning of the college's annual series of chamber music concerts.

Guest of honor at the coming festival will be Mrs. Elizabeth Sprague Coolidge. Directors of music at all colleges and universities in the country will be invited.

The 1928 dedication was made possible through the generosity of Mrs. Coolidge. At the initial ceremony, Mrs Coolidge herself played the opening notes on the piano in the Hall of Chamber Music, now known as Concert Hall. The first number played on the festival day in 1928 was a sextette for wind instruments and piano, written by Domenico Brescia, professor of composition, and dedicated to Mrs. Coolidge.

At next month's festival the artist groups participating will be the Alma Trio, the Berkeley Chamber Singers and the Walden String Quartet. Egon Petri, pianist in residence at Mills, will give a program of Bach, Beethoven, Medtner, Liszt and Chopin works on the closing afternoon of the festival.

On the opening evening in Concert Hall, the Alma Trio, will be performing artists.

Since its organization four years ago, the members have made one coast to coast tour and have given a yearly series of concerts at many educational institutions on the West Coast. Last season the trio gave 20 concerts in Northern California alone. Each member has concertized as a solo artist throughout the United States and in Europe. The trio is in residence at Occidental College. Members are Adolph Baller, piano; Roman Totenberg, violin; and Garbor Rejto, cello.

Local BPWC Plans Public Affairs Dinner Mar. 30

Members of the Redwood City Business and Professional Women's Club will hold their public affairs dinner on Tuesday, Mar. 30, at 6:45 p.m. at the Villa Chartier, 4060 El Camino Real, in San Mateo.

Members and all service clubs, county and city officials, their wives and guests are invited to attend, according to Ruth Barrett, president of the club.

Mrs. Edna Swift, chairman of public affairs, has announced that Assemblyman Richard Dolwig will be the guest speaker.

RC Council Authorizes Bond Sale

Redwood City councilmen last night introduced an ordinance authorizing the issuance of $600,000 worth of 1944 civic improvement bonds. The bonds, approved by voters in 1944, are for use next year on city projects.

The ordinance would call for an interest rate not to exceed five per cent and would require that bonds be repaid at a rate of $30,000 a year for 20 years. Although the interest is not to exceed five per cent, city officials expect to sell the bonds for considerably less. Current city bond rates are between two and three per cent.

Apr. 5 was set as the date for hearing protests to the passing of the ordinance.

The council also passed a resolution setting Apr. 15 as the day for opening bids for the bonds.

Rex Benham, 504 Roosevelt Ave., put in another appearance last night to protest the condition of city streets. He will have the problem explained to him at 6:30 o'clock this evening in City Mgr. E. A. Rolison's office. He criticized council for letting streets fall into disrepair and charged the city could obtain street rapairmen more easily by paying union wages.

Rolison said that the city's problem was not in obtaining laborers but in finding supervisors.

Council also:

Received a petition with 43 signatures protesting a proposed renaming of Hampton Ct. The planning commission has urged that the street be renamed Louisiana St. because it runs into that street. Petitioners urged that Louisiana St. which at present has no homes along it, be renamed Hampton Ct. The matter was referred to the commission for reconsideration.

Noted that City Clerk Ralph S. Dodge had received a summons to appear in justice court on a suit by Contractor M. Weber to recover penalty money he paid the city. In 1945 Weber requested additional time to complete a city sidewalk contract. He was granted the extra time on the provision that he pay $17 a day for the additional time. This cost him a total of $395.

Authorized the advertising for bids to repaint two Redwood City fire department rigs. Fire Chief Joe Lodi urged that they be repainted white—and the council agreed.

Endorsed a proposal by the Pillar Point Breakwater Committee that a breakwater be constructed with federal aid at Half Moon Bay.

Passed a motion requiring Mayor W. W. Hilton to attend a San Leandro Chamber of Commerce session Mar. 25 at Fremont High School, Oakland. The meeting concerns the installation of a South San Francisco Bay crossing.

Approved the appearance Apr. 29 in Redwood City of the Clyde Beatty Circus.

Postponed awarding a contract for a new sewage disposal plant until Wednesday at 4 p.m. The postponement was necessitated by the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors which last week failed to give final approval to a North Fair Oaks assessment district which is to pay part of the plant's cost.

Passed a resolution wiping out racial restrictions on a lot in the Boyd and Kent Addition. City Atty. Cuthbert Currie reported that the city had illegally inserted a racial restriction in a deed for property it sold.

Counsel May Delay Curtin Robbery Trial

Another attempt to delay the robbery trial of Jadwiga Curtin and Howard Durham may be made tomorrow when the case comes up for trial before Superior Judge Aylett R. Cotton.

Wayne Millington, attorney representing the 20-year-old Polish war bride, admitted today that there was a strong possibility that another continuance may be sought.

He said that he himself was ready to proceed with the trial, but that Leslie C. Gillen, Durham's lawyer, may have another case in San Francisco. Gillen was in court in San Francisco today and could not be reached.

The case has been continued three times, since it first was set for trial in December.

Durham, here last month, when the latest delay was granted, said at that time that the trial probably would be "stalled off again."

Meanwhile, Prosecutor Fred Wycoff declared that he would fight any attempt to postpone the case again.

Millington said that he would be ready to go ahead with Jadwiga alone on trial today, but the prosecution would like to have the two tried at the same time, since any evidence it is holding will have to be laid before the court at the first trial.

Jadwiga and Durham, a 27-year-old Reedley plasterer, are charged with the robbery of George Caulfield, a 23-year-old Stanford University student, on Oct. 12 in South San Francisco.

The robbery occurred three days before George W. Conner of Palo Alto was shot to death on lonely Los Trancos Rd. back of Stanford University. Jadwiga was charged with murder in his death, convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to Tehachapi.

She was brought here from the state prison for women last Friday by a deputy sheriff and a matron. If the case is continued for some time, she will have to be returned there. Each time she has to be transported, involves a two-day round-trip for two county officers.

The trial is scheduled to start at 10 a.m. before Judge Cotton. A panel of 52 prospective jurors has been drawn.

Dibble Property Set at $154,570

The appraised value of the 30-acre Dibble Hospital recreation area has been set by War Assets Administration at $154,570.

The announcement was made by Mayor Charles P. Burgess at a special meeting of the Menlo Park City Council last week in the city hall.

Councilmen passed a resolution asking WAA to defer disposal of the property until officials of the agency review the valuation.

The council, after a discussion of the proposed location of a San Mateo County branch library at 773 Santa Cruz Ave., invited all persons interested in the library and all persons with offers of a location to attend the next regular meeting of the council next Tuesday evening.

In announcing the WAA disposal price for the Dibble Hospital property which the city wishes to acquire for use as a civic center, Mayor Burgess stated that buildings on the land were valued at $87,000 and the land itself at $67,370.

Burgess stated that although the property is being advertised for public sale, the WAA is being asked not to dispose of the property at this time.

The city had hoped the buildings would be appraised at their off-site value, Burgess explained. City zoning ordinances do not allow use of the gymnasium, theater, and swimming pool other than for park and recreation use, and therefore they would be of no value to other bidders, Burgess explained.

The 10-acre site at Ravenswood Ave. and Middlefield Rd., considered by the Sequoia Union High School Dist. Board of Trustees as a possible location of a Menlo Park district high school, has been appraised at $51,000, the WAA announced in a letter sent to Burgess.

Edmonds Files For Reelection

Henry W. Edmonds of Redwood City has filed his petition of candidacy for reelection to the post of San Mateo County Supervisor.

Edmonds, a retired army lieutenant colonel, will be seeking reelection to the board of supervisors for his second term.

Arthur V. Swift, who has taken out papers and announced that he would oppose Edmonds at the polls, has not yet filed with County Clerk William H. Augustus.

The Richard McGonigals Feted Before Departure

"Dick" has already left for Palmira, New York, to take over the management of the Garlock Mechanical Packing Company's head office. Claudia has tentatively set Apr. 10 as the date she will say a final farewell to San Carlos friends.

The McGonigals and their two boys, Dick and Larry, have been residents of San Carlos for five years. Dick was a trustee of the ficer in the local Masonic Lodge and Claudia is a member of Junior Matrons, the Guild and a sewing club.

They will live in Palmira and Dick has sent word that a house is waiting his family's arrival. Claudia will go first to Washington, D.C., to visit her brother and Dick will join her and the boys there to drive on to Palmira.

The San Carlos Lodge No. 690 F&AM held a pot-luck dinner for them at the home of the R. T. Pratt's, with a railroad motif for the evening. Present were the Walter Simons, Kent Hopkins, Ed Burtons, Vivian Morleys, L. B. Parkers, Franklin Duxburys, A. W. Gors, Earl Crawfords, William Taylors, Jack Websters, William Lindeburgs, Ferd Princes, Miss Charlotte Bowman, Mr. George Boyce, the host and hostess and the honorees.

Mrs. Jean Widdas and her husband entertained for the couple at a large party before Dick left, and then gave an intimate luncheon last Friday for Claudia, at the City of Paris in San Mateo.

A dinner at Rickey's was a surprise to Claudia last Tuesday evening, given her by her sewing club. Following the dinner, the club members presented her with a jeweled mesh necklace and bracelet set as their farewell gift.

Sewing club members present were Mmes. Dru Morrison, Fern Shiveley, Esther Callis, Julie Houston, Gertrude Hurlbut, Mary Gibbons, Marguerite Means, Alethea Greenlee, Enid Templeton, Louise Rollins, May Gordon, Jean Kidder, Betty Trager, Della Smith, Melva Smith and Claudina Bunting.

Sequoia Budget Shows Increase

Supt. A. C. Argo of Sequoia High School last week presented to the board of trustees a preliminary budget for 1948-49 calling for an increase of more than $50,000 over this year's current operating budget.

The total figure of the present school year budget was higher, but Argo explained that $40,000 had been set aside for a new shop and $60,000 for purchase of land.

Preliminary budget for 1948-49 calls for $774,419. Argo estimated the income for the year at $774,-432.81.

Among the biggest increases were salaries for nine new teachers and automatic salary increases for 120 others. The new budget also includes final payment of $10,000 for purchase of the Bourdette property in Belmont for a high school site and $12,000 for purchase of a new bus.

Administration, $14,694; teachers' salaries, $489,871; other expenses of instruction, $54,385; operation of school plant, $73,-305; maintenance of school plant, $25,085; coordinate activities and auxiliary agencies, pupil transportation, $24,670; other coordinate activities and auxiliary agencies, $18,079; fixed charges (non-bonded debt service, $250; fixed charges, $15,465; capital outlay, $35,375; undistributed reserve, $23,240.

Board Votes 'Hot Potato' Tax Proposal

Proposal by the Sequoia Teachers Assn. that the statutory tax limit be raised from 75 cents to $1 to enable salaries to be boosted came as a "hot potato" to the trustees.

The board tossed it around from member to member and back to the teachers Friday night before deciding to yield to the teachers' request that it be placed on the May 21 ballot.

"I think it has been thrown to us pretty hot," Trustee Walter W. Hilton declared. "At least it could have leaked out to the board."

Trustees Merritt R. Hosmer declared he did not think it was fair for the teachers to toss the matter to the trustees so near the deadline.

However, after Donald Kauffman, cochairman with Anne Burns of the salary committee, explained that the group did not know until this week there was a 60-day limit and that the teachers were not trying to slip anything over on anybody, Hilton moved and Hosmer seconded the motion that the statutory limit be increased for a five-year period.

Sequoia is the only major high school in San Mateo County now operating without a special tax, Kauffman said.

Kauffman, who was spokesman for the teachers' association, said that salary proposals to be presented by the teachers could not be accepted unless additional revenue is found.

"In coming before you at this time with our request for substantial salary increases, aggregating about $90,000," Kauffman said, "we are not unmindful of the efforts which you made last year and the year before to help us. Within the limitations of the budget you gave us all that you could.

"The future affords us no hope for the achievement of what we regard as real professional salaries unless you submit, through an election for a special tax, our case to the people for decision.

"We are asking for a schedule providing $3000-$5100 for teachers with four years of college training or its equivalent, $3300-$5400 for those with five years, $3600-$5700 for those with six and $3900-$6000 for those few, if any, with seven.

"We believe that such requests are just and reasonable and that the only defensible argument against them is lack of the money to grant it. A decision in this regard should properly be made by the people who pay the bills."

News of Commuters

Next Thursday night the House Committee will call on Jim Smith for its monthly meeting to complete plans for the Fathers, Sons and Daughters night to take place Wednesday, Mar. 31, at the Sequoia High School Cafeteria. House Chmn. Duke Martin and his gang have made plans for plenty of entertainment for the fathers and their offspring so ladies be sure that your family takes this party in.

The list just sent to each member of the club, showing occupations and places of business omitted one thing which was very important — "Hidden Talent"—take the musicians for instance, M. L. Brockway, trumpet player, Harry Call also plays a mean trumpet, Cecil Campbell, banjo artist, Ed De Bow, saxophone, Sanford De Bow, drummer, Bill Dobbyn, remember he tickles the ivories, Tony Doolin, Irish fiddler, "Caboose," the Alabamy fiddler, Loco Bill McKeegan, piano and voice, Norm Meyer, piano on the black keys, fiddle and guitar, Charley Mueller, accordion, Bert Conroy and Bill Kielty have voices that are a pleasure to hear. Too bad that we haven't an orchestra to really be appreciated. Elmer Ross also has a voice for singing his favorite song "Sioux City Sue."

Herb Shepard missed the train the other morning trying to find a place to park and finally located a spot in Millbrae.

"Billy" son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Werner was seriously injured recently and is in the hospital at Palo Alto, however, is recovering and will be able to come home shortly.

Next week the campaign for councilmen should start in earnest, the usual handshakes and cards. Too bad they don't pass out good cigars and cigaretes.

Beverly, daughter of Paul Allen and Joan, daughter of Fred Kubes entertained at a piano recital Saturday night in the studio of Mrs. B. A. Leese.

Lloyd and Mrs. Liebman departed last week on a six months tour of the United States.

"Over the Top" was the report given by Jim Smith, chairman of the Red Cross drive committee.

Safeway Trims Them Before Weighing

(SO YOU SAVE MONEY)

We'll give you DOUBLE the number of Rib Lamb Chops you buy
(they won't cost you a penny)
if ever you get SAFEWAY Rib Lamb Chops not trimmed this money-saving way

"TAIL" OF EACH CHOP (the end portion of bone, and excess fat) cut off by Safeway before we weigh your rib lamb chops on the market scales. It gives you chops that cook and eat better . . . that fit better in the pan and on a platter

TIP END OF CHINE BONE removed from each chop before we weigh your purchase of rib lamb chops at Safeway. It means there's more good-eating meat in Safeway's lamb chops — less waste in each pound you pay for

It means more tender, juicy meat in every pound you pay for...a bigger value for your meat dollar at Safeway!

YOU SEE ABOVE how Safeway removes excess waste, bone and fat from rib lamb chops before weighing them. And the test-purchase report presented here shows you how important it is to compare trimming as well as price.

We prepare other cuts in similar fashion — each according to its special requirements. This waste-free cutting is part of Safeway's Guaranteed Meats plan. We regularly trim our meats this way.

When you compare meat prices, remember that Safeway's prices always are on the TRIMMED cut . . . free of excess bone, waste and fat . . . ready for cooking.

If ever you're not satisfied the meat you buy at Safeway is trimmed the money-saving way we say, just show it to the manager of the Safeway store where you bought it. If your Safeway rib lamb chops (for example) are NOT trimmed as shown above—you get DOUBLE the number of rib lamb chops you buy without a penny's extra cost (and without quibble or argument!)

More. We hold our meats the full number of days needed to bring out peak flavor and tenderness. And we safeguard their goodness with temperature controls. Come prove for yourself — there's more good-eating at less cost in Guaranteed Meats from Safeway!

Test purchases by Independent Bureau show you can save money on meat

And we secured proof that it pays you to check trimming as closely as you check price when buying meat.

In 201 representative markets in this area where they bought meat they found a great variation in the way meat is trimmed.

In 97% of the markets other than Safeway, rib lamb chops purchased were not trimmed before weighing.

Had the rib lamb chops been first trimmed and then weighed (as Safeway does), the average saving would have been more than 11¢ per pound. Actually, customers of some of these stores would have saved amounts up to 23¢ per pound.

This survey shows unmistakably that thousands of housewives in this area are paying regular meat prices — which are high enough these days, goodness knows — for waste that is thrown away!

- Example: For rib lamb chops purchased UNTRIMMED shoppers paid an average of over 18¢ more for six chops than if these chops had been trimmed BEFORE weighing. In some markets as much as 36¢ more!
- Example: For rib roasts purchased UNTRIMMED shoppers paid an average of over 54¢ more per 6-lb. roast than if these roasts had been trimmed BEFORE weighing.
- Example: For T-bone steaks purchased UNTRIMMED shoppers paid an average of almost 22¢ more per 2-lb. steak than if these steaks had been trimmed BEFORE weighing.
- Example: For legs of lamb purchased UNTRIMMED shoppers paid an average of over 42¢ more per 6-lb. roast than if these roasts had been trimmed BEFORE weighing.

You are entitled to these worthwhile savings on the meats you buy. Trade with a market that trims meat BEFORE weighing!

Production Staff Named For High School Spring Play

The production staff for "Guest Star," Sequoia's three-act spring dramatic production has been chosen, according to Mrs. Deborah Kiviaho, Sequoia dramatics instructor.

Sets are being made by the class in stagecraft instructed by Ray Hubbard, and lighting effects will be done by the stage crew under Mr. Hubbard. The commercial class, directed by Miss Montana Delbon, is making programs; while Mrs. Eva Newman's art classes have completed publicity posters. The publicity is being done by the school publicity department.

Handling ticket sales are the Masqueraders, a small group of drama students plus the student finance committee, under Chester Shamel. Members of Sequoia's ushering committee, advised by Mrs. Sally Long, will usher for two performances.

The three act play by Walter Kerr will be presented at a student matinee Apr. 1 at 2:30 p.m. and at an evening performance Apr. 3 at 8:15 p.m. Admission for the evening performance is 60 cents for adults and 30 cents for children, and the student matinee price is 30 cents. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

The evening performance, according to Mrs. Kiviaho, will be sponsored by the Sequoia Parent Teacher Assn., and profits from the production will be divided between the two groups.

Both a hilarious comedy and a clever satire, "Guest Star's" plot revolves about a Broadway actress who is the guest star at a university play. Fun and action begin, according to Mrs. Kiviaho, when the actress finds a sophisticated crowd of college students in the small New Hampshire university instead of the usual type.

The cast was chosen by Mrs. Kiviaho entirely from "Sequoia Players," a group of about 25 students specially interested in stage work.

Heading the group will be Pat Brizee of Redwood City, playing Pamela Mason the Broadway actress and Malcom Smith also of Redwood City, portraying the university's Russian dramatics teacher.

Still Seek Jury In Jadwiga Trial

The robbery trial of Jadwiga Curtin and Howard Durham dragged on today, with little prospect that a jury would be selected before tomorrow morning.

Only one-fourth of the 40 preemptory challenges possible had been used up today by both sides, with the prosecution and defense each exercising five.

Since only two jurors had been excused for cause, there still remained about 35 left on the panel from which the jury is being drawn.

Mrs. Curtin and Durham are charged with robbing George Caulfield, 23-year-old Stanford student, last Oct. 12, three days before the 20-year-old Polish war bride shot and killed George Conner of Palo Alto.
